TOWN CANDIDATES ACTIVE IN FINAL WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

Voters May Choose From Ten Candidates; 3 to Be Elected

"Political fences" in Antioch township are getting a genuine overhauling this week as candidates make the final canvass for votes at Tuesday's annual election. Ten candidates are in the field and their names will appear on three tickets carried on the ballot.

Four seek the office of township supervisor, two of whom, William A. Roising, incumbent, and Bernard F. Naber, former supervisor, appear on the Peoples ticket, with Elmer Hunter as the Independent party candidate, and Richard Macek as the sole candidate in the Progressive column.

Three for Commissioner. Three candidates for commissioner of highways are listed under the Peoples party. They are Carl Barthel, incumbent, and candidate for re-election, Frank Dunn, former holder of the office, and Delain Rigby.

J. B. Dickson, Antioch auto tire dealer, and Raymond Sorenson, employee of the state highway department, are waging a friendly but spirited campaign for justice of the peace. Both are listed under the Peoples ticket.

To Elect Tax Collector

Last on the ballot is John L. Horan, sole candidate for town collector, an office remaining vacant for many years, partly because no one was a candidate for it, and partly through the erroneous belief that towns in Lake county could not under the law elect collectors of taxes. The law which abolished the office of township collector was passed by the general assembly several years ago, but it applied only to counties of less than 100,000 population. The 1930 federal census showed Lake county to have passed the 100,000 mark. Thus Lake county townships have been eligible to elect collectors since 1930.

The Special Ballot

In addition to the candidate ballot to be submitted to voters here next Tuesday there will be a small ballot carrying the proposition for levying a tax not to exceed one and two-tenths mills on the dollar for the establishment and maintenance of a public library for the township of Antioch. In the past the library has been supported by taxation within the village of Antioch, but free access has been given to all residents of the township. The proposition to make the library district include the township should carry by a substantial majority.

SEEK TO CUT INTEREST ON FARM MORTGAGES

Wheeler Amendment for 3 1/2% on Federal Loans Passes Senate

Interest rates on millions of dollars of federal farm loans in Illinois and other states will be reduced from 4 1/2 to 3 1/2 per cent if the Wheeler amendment to the Farm Credit Act is enacted, reports the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The measure has passed the United States senate and is pending in the House. It would make the lower rate effective on all past and future farm loans of the federal government until 1937.

The American Farm Bureau Federation is actively supporting the measure. This position, we believe, is fully justified, said Earl C. Smith, president of the I. A. A. and a director in the national federation, because the government is now able to borrow money from the people for approximately one per cent less than when the Credit Act was passed in the year 1933.

While working consistently for a farm credit system fitted to the farmers' needs with interest rates comparable to those enjoyed by other groups, the Illinois Agricultural Association states that it has emphasized the need for restoring farm price levels and income last year that of $1,000,000,000 greater than that of 1933 and approximately $2,000,000,000 or 40 per cent ahead of 1933. Indicates that the program of organized farmers has brought results, says the association statement.

With the price of 14 basic farm commodities at or near pre-war parity or fair exchange value, the I. A. A. sees the great job ahead of farmers is to maintain this relationship by keeping production in balance with demand at the parity price level.

Aids State in Plans for Grass Lake Park

Einar Sorenson, state waterways inspector for northern Illinois, who is co-operating with state officials in plans for building a state park in Grass Lake area. The first unit of government CCC camps will be opened on Ed Smith's subdivision within the next two weeks to begin work on the east shore.

GRASS LAKE CCC IMPROVEMENT WILL COST $2,000,000

State Getting Quit Claim

Assurance that the big project, which has been in consideration for more than a year, would start immediately was given Thursday when twenty-five property owners met at Pregelzer's resort with Walter M. Smith, district state engineer, and L. Gumz of the state engineering department, who is securing quit claim deeds from property owners. The deeds are for property along the meandering shore line for state park purposes, and the giving of the deeds will in nowise deprive the property owners the use of their land, or the ownership of it beyond the high-water line, according to the state district engineer.

The purpose of the project is to improve the Grass Lake section by deepening the waterways so that unobstructed navigation may be had at all times, the damming of water at certain points, building islands, and beautifying the shoreline around the lake.

Will Beautify Lake.

Quit claim deeds have already been obtained for nearly all of the east shore line, and it is there that the work will start, according to Engineer Smith, who states that a beauty spot will be made there where thousands may enjoy what nature has to offer. The area will also serve as a place of conservation of game and fish. The dams will serve to maintain water levels and will aid navigation.

The project, which was brought to the attention of the state public works administration by Einar Sorenson, state waterways inspector for this district, Ray Pregelzer, and other prominent members of the Lake County Waterways Improvement association, will be financed solely by the public works department under Director Robert Klingery, and all that must be furnished locally is the quit claim deeds from property owners. The plan is to extend the park all the way around Grass Lake.

The first unit of the CCC workers will build a camp on Ed Smith's property on the east shore, it was announced today, and other camps will be built as needed.

Fight Tuberculosis With Modern Weapons, Is Slogan for the Year

The Lake County Tuberculosis Association has received the Early Diagnosis Campaign supplies from the State Tuberculosis Association.

The material consists of booklets explaining modern methods of treating tuberculosis, the part nature plays in helping cure tuberculosis, how the sanatorium benefits in the cure, and what everyone should know about tuberculosis. There are also small posters for display, in addition to billboard posters which will be posted throughout the county.

This literature is for free distribution to anyone interested in knowing about tuberculosis.

The slogan of the campaign this year is "Fight tuberculosis with modern weapons."

4-H Club Rally at Grays Lake Friday

There will be a 4-H Club Party and Rally on Friday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock, at the Grays Lake School Auditorium. Miss Martha Hensley and Frank Gingrich, District 4-H Club Advisers, will be present.

All girls and boys of Lake County between the ages of 10 and 20, parents and leaders, are cordially invited to attend this party.

There will be games, stunts, singing, talks, and fun for all.

Supt. Petty Attends Meeting at Springfield

County Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty left Tuesday for Springfield where he attended a meeting of the state board of the Illinois Teachers' Reading Circle of which he is a member. The board makes selections of books for teachers.

Latin League Entertains

On Friday evening the Latin League will entertain Latin students who are now in school, their parents, and the faculty at the Roman Banquet. They will present a one-act play entitled, "Latin for a Day."

Work on Annual Is Progressing

The annual staff has been busy at work upon the "Sequela," the year-book of Antioch Township High School. Several pictures have been taken, and the final copies have been begun. They are being typed by the students of the typing class and must be finished by April 10. This year the annual will be on sale for a dollar.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillson Give Banquet for High School Athletic Teams

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stillson tendered a banquet for members of the Antioch High School basketball squad at 6:30 o'clock Saturday at their home on Spafford street. The color scheme of green and yellow was carried out in the decorations and also in the place-cards, the latter being small basketball booklets containing the history of the team for the year. A bouquet of yellow daffodils formed the centerpiece for the table.

Nineteen boys who have played on the school teams this year were present.

Antioch Girls Attend Junior Red Cross Meet

Five Antioch High School girls, accompanied by Miss Cornelia Roberts, faculty member, yesterday afternoon attended a meeting of the Junior American Red Cross at the Waukegan Township High school where a program was given. Those attending from Antioch were Nora Arnold, Jeanette Peterson, Lena Pedersen, Doris Fitzgerald and Helen Van Paten. Representatives from Warren and Grant also attended.

These schools have recently enrolled in the Junior Red Cross through the chairman of this district, Mrs. William Marks.

Yesterday they heard Miss Wright of Chicago, who was the national delegate of the Junior Red Cross to the International convention in Tokyo, Japan. She told of her experience at that great meeting.

MR. AND MRS. POWLES ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powles entertained their bridge club at their home on Harden Avenue, Thursday evening. Mrs. Ed Vos, Mrs. B. R. Burke and Mrs. Lester Osmond were prize winners. Mrs. Ed Vos, Mrs. B. R. Burke winners.

Mrs. A. J. Tiffany and Mrs. N. E. Sibley attended the Farm Bureau meeting on "Landscape Gardening" at Grayslake on Friday afternoon.

The April First Jester

THOUSANDS DUE LAKE COUNTY FROM STATE SCHOOL FUND

Springfield, Ill., March 27.—Just where Lake county stands in the present school middle in Illinois is revealed by some very pertinent statistics available to anyone who cares to make investigation. Cold figures, on file in the State House, show that:

Lake county in 1931 received 71.2 per cent of the moneys due it from the state's common school fund whereas Cook county got 100 per cent; in 1932 Lake county got only 61.6 per cent while Cook county got 75.2 per cent of its share. In 1933 Lake county got a mere 60.0 per cent while Cook was getting 80.7 per cent. This means that Lake county, for the three-year average, got only 64.1 per cent while Cook county was getting 85.1 per cent.

No longer is there intense and heated agitation in Chicago over the "school situation." No longer are groups of teachers descending upon the banks or the office of the school board. The Chicago newspapers are silent. All is quiet on the Chicago front.

This means that down-state counties are left to fight their school battles without help of the powerful influences that came to the rescue of the Chicago schools. But their abandonment is bringing a solidarity of action which down-state counties have never known in the past.

Members of school boards, parents, and other friends of the schools outside of Cook county are rallying, as never before, to make mass requests to the legislature for emergency legislation to relieve the critical situation their schools are facing.

These remember that Chicago, due to united effort, a solid front, and powerful political prestige, borrowed $23,000,000 from the federal government and met teachers' salaries in full. Many down-state schools owe their teachers for months and even years.

They remember that during the first two weeks of the present legislative session the "pegged levy" bill for Chicago was passed enabling the Chicago district to levy $43,000,000 for the present year regardless of rate limitations.

They remember that on the strength of this emergency legislation Chicago banks bought sufficient anticipation warrants to permit that city to continue to pay the salaries of its teachers, and other school employees, in full.

Crucial hardships continue in hundreds of down-state schools. Curricula are being cut, teaching staffs have been slashed and school rooms are overcrowded. Teachers are being forced to accept warrants, and where the legal limit for warrants has been reached, to accept "orders" which, in many cases, have no present value and likely never will have any.

With the increase in state revenues, amounting to more than 100 per cent in the last five years, mostly from non-property taxes and new sources, various state departments are gradually being restored to pre-depression salary levels. Friends of education are asking, "Why not help the down-state schools now?"

25 Hear Business Talk at Men's Dinner

Twenty-five Antioch men who attended the Men's club dinner at the high school Thursday evening heard a stirring address on "Business and the New Deal" by R. M. Plaster, of the New Deal Service.

The dinner was served in the high school cafeteria by the Aid Society of the Methodist church.

Hendee Intends To Carry His Fight To Supreme Court

Application for a rehearing of the mandamus action in which it upheld the decision of the lower court declaring Russ Alford, democratic candidate, as county clerk will be asked by Lew A. Hendee, present incumbent, he declared this week. Failing in this Hendee will appeal the case to the supreme court.

There is also a movement among some leaders of the Democratic party to determine if under the law the governor can declare the office as vacant and reappoint Alford to fill the post pending the outcome of the controversy between the two candidates. This, however, would be strenuously opposed by the Republican forces which contend that Hendee is the rightful incumbent of the office.

Hendee was elected as county clerk by a majority of 147 on the basis of figures returned by the canvassing board. This finding was attacked in a mandamus action filed by Alford in Circuit court and Judge Ralph J. Dady upheld Alford's claims that he was illegally deprived of 194 votes cast for him in Highland and that 100 ballots were credited to Hendee which were not cast for that candidate in Round Lake. This would give Alford a lead of 187 votes.

Young Republican League Plans Big Party For Friday

One of the largest social gatherings of the week is expected to take part in the big party to be held in Masonic Temple, Waukegan, Friday night under the sponsorship of the Young People's Republican organization and Howard L. Scott, chairman of the Republican County Central committee and the executive committee of that group.

The event will include an extensive program of entertainment as well as dancing and refreshments. The events will start at 8:30 and close at 12:30.

More than 2,000 invitations have been sent out to members of the party and indications are that the affair will be a marked success.

RECOVER LOOT TAKEN IN ANTIOCH DRUG STORE THEFT

Three Are Held on Burglary Charge; Bonds Set at $10,000

Fast action on the part of Lake county deputy sheriffs resulted Saturday before Justice Harry Hoyt, when it was shown he had no part in the robbery. The other three were ordered held to await the action of the grand jury. They are: Adolph Arizona, 2125 South Third street, Maywood; Alfred Archambault, Antioch, and L. Cohen, Antioch. Archambault and Cohen were ordered held on bonds of $10,000 each, and Adolph Arizona was held on bonds of $5,000 on a charge of impersonating an officer.

One of the men was released Monday following the preliminary hearing before Justice Harry Hoyt, when it was shown he had no part in the robbery. The other three were ordered held to await the action of the grand jury. They are: Adolph Arizona, 2125 South Third street, Maywood; Alfred Archambault, Antioch, and L. Cohen, Antioch. Archambault and Cohen were ordered held on bonds of $10,000 each, and Adolph Arizona was held on bonds of $5,000 on a charge of impersonating an officer.

Hint Woman Involved.

Deputies found that entrance to the building was gained through a second story window in the rear of the store. Taking $10 from registers and an additional $115 from the store safe, the robbers then took bonded liquor of the best brands and many cartons of cigarettes and cigars which were carried to a car parked a short distance away.

The finding of a woman's footprints near where the car was parked led officers to believe that a woman, probably the "bright-eyes" or lookout for the men, may be involved in the robbery. Footprints, auto tracks and other clues led to a speedy identification of the suspects in the case, according to the deputies assigned to the case immediately after the robbery was reported by George Garland shortly after 7:00 a. m. Friday.

Sheriff Praises Kennedy

Credit for the speedy solution of the case and the roundup of suspects goes to Chief Deputy Tom Kennedy and Deputy Christian, Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle said yesterday. These easy and high-handed robberies in Lake county must stop, the sheriff said.

The robbery Friday was the fifth at the King store since last December, when the place was robbed on four successive nights by Charles Hoge. On the fourth night Hoge walked into the arms of Deputy Stanley Christian who was guarding the store. Hoge is now doing time at the state farm at Joliet.

RUSH SEED LOANS TO NEEDY FARMERS

Farm Credit Administration Makes 60 Millions Available for Loans

Sixty million dollars is being made available for seed loans to needy farmers, according to announcement made by the farm credit administration.

The bill appropriating the money was signed by President Roosevelt last night and today Governor William I. Myers of the farm credit administration announced the loans would be disbursed through regional offices located at Springfield, Mass., Memphis, Dallas, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Salt Lake City, Omaha, Wichita, Baltimore and Spokane.

Only farmers cooperating with the government's crop control program are eligible for the loans, which will be limited to a maximum of $500. No loan, however, may be made that is greater than actually needed to purchase seed and fertilizer.

Myers also announced that the loans will be made only to farmers unable to obtain advances from local banks, production credit associations or other sources.

Farmers needing the emergency loans must apply to county crop loan committees which already are in existence in every county. The county committee will forward the applications to the regional office for approval.

La Grange Gives Long Franchise to Public Service

The village council of La Grange, Illinois, this week granted an ordinance for a term of 30 years to the Public Service Company of Northern Illinois.

hundred millions were paid to these individuals, and later, it was made a part of their base pay. They even adjusted the pay, in some instances, of men wearing the uniform, who were assigned to certain labor occupations where they were employed with civilian employees, the soldier receiving $1.00 and the civilian laborer, from $3.00 to $12.00 per day. Some one complained that it was not fair for the soldier to receive $1.00 for the same thing that the man working along side of him was being paid from $3.00 to $12.00, so their pay was adjusted in some cases.

Now the periodicals of the Nation and some of the Metropolitan Press have called us "Treasury Robbers." The veterans were patriotic in '17 and '18, as evidenced by the records of the Federal Government which show that hundreds of thousands of soldiers, willingly gave themselves, offering their lives to their country, and too, were willing to assist in paying the cost, and they bought Liberty Bonds and from their pay, depending upon the Liberty Bond purchased, was deducted either $2.50 or $5.00 per month. Deducting $5.00 per month from the $3.20, leaves $3.20, with which they could go out and have a good time for a month. Then on Monday morning, or whatever day they chose, they could go out behind the latrine and wash their clothing as they did not have money to pay for laundry and they had to stand themselves, to be able to stand the rigid inspection. Those men were patriots! They were patriots then and they are patriots today! They served their country; their country and their nation!

New Gamble Radio Program Goes On Air

"Jack Malerich's Gamble Serenade", Gamble Stores' new series of radio programs, is now on the air. The cast, shown above, features Jack Malerich, well-known maestro of the Midwest. The program will consist of Malerich's string ensemble, organ music, and the singing Gamblers. This program will originate from the Nicolet Hotel studios of WCCO in Minneapolis each Monday and Friday at 9:30 P. M. This program is the latest creation of its kind originating at the present time from WCCO and will bring to radio fans some exceptionally fine vocal and instrumental numbers, both old and new.

ply this, that inasmuch as the Federal Government has embarked upon a program of spending to bring back prosperity, there is no better method of disbursing these funds than by paying the Adjusted Service Certificates which would bring funds into every community in the nation and, if we believe the reports of the Veterans' Bureau, this money, almost in its entirety, would be used for paying the merchant, the butcher, and the baker, where it would, in turn be put into circulation, causing the spending of money in the communities where the most good would be done.

Prompt Payment for Contractors
"When they acknowledged this indebtedness on the 19th of March, 1924, unlike when they settled with the Contractors, the railroads, and the civilian employees, in cash plus six per cent, they said, 'You will be permitted to wait twenty years after application, the application to be made any time on or after January 1, 1925.'

Up to Congress
"The Legion Bill, as introduced in Congress, is the Resolution which was passed at the Miami Convention, put in the proper legal phraseology, to permit its entry into Congress. The Legion Bill, contrary to the statements of the press, does not mention any method of payment but simply requests that these certificates be paid NOW and in cash. The Legion has previously entered Bills in Congress for our disabled, in the amount of hundreds of millions of dollars, and we have never previously, in any Bill, suggested any method of payment. That is the prerogative of Congress—the lower House of Representatives, particularly—alone.

Supports Vinson Bill
"The main Bill that is in opposition at the moment, of the more than twenty-five Bills which have been entered on this subject, all of which have some monetary method, which may, or may not, be the pet scheme of its proponent, in which he may be more interested than in the payment of the Certificates, is the so-called Patman Bill, calling for an inflation of the currency. This Bill, it is true, has passed, on two or three occasions, the House of Representatives of the United States, but it has never passed the United States Senate but has in fact been defeated, in that body and this is one more reason why the Legionnaires, and those interested, should stand solidly behind the passage of the Vinson Bill which leaves it to Congress to say what will be the method of payment."

ANTIOCH WINS SECOND PLACE

In the sub-district Public-speaking and Music Contest held at Dundee on Saturday, March 16, Antioch took second place in the Public-speaking division, in which Dundee placed first.

There were about fourteen schools entered in the contest.

Ruth Ona Nelson took second place in the soprano event.

Cropley Phillips placed second in the oratorical declamation, and Mary Lou Sibley placed third in original oration. Parken Hazen took second place in the boys' poetry division, and Gayle Pierce took third place in the girls' poetry division. Dorothy Schold took third place in the dramatic declamation. The one-act play took the sub-district pennant.

Those who placed first or second will go to DeKalb on April 5 to compete in the district tournament.

TOWN CANDIDATES ACTIVE IN FINAL WEEK OF CAMPAIGN

Voters May Choose From Ten Candidates; 3 to Be Elected

"Political fences" in Antioch township are getting a genuine overhauling this week as candidates make the final canvass for votes at Tuesday's annual election. Ten candidates are in the field and their names will appear on three tickets carried on the ballot.

Four seek the office of township supervisor, two of whom, William A. Roising, incumbent, and Bernard F. Naber, former supervisor, appear on the Peoples ticket, with Elmer Hunter as the Independent party candidate, and Richard Macek as the sole candidate in the Progressive column.

Three for Commissioner. Three candidates for commissioner of highways are listed under the People's party. They are Carl Barthel, incumbent, and candidate for re-election, Frank Dunn, former holder of the office, and Delain Rigby.

J. B. Dickson, Antioch auto tire dealer, and Raymond Sorenson, employee of the state highway department, are waging a friendly but spirited campaign for justice of the peace. Both are listed under the People's ticket.

To Elect Tax Collector. Last on the ballot is John L. Horan, sole candidate for town collector, an office remaining vacant for many years, partly because no one was a candidate for it, and partly through the erroneous belief that towns in Lake county could not under the law elect collectors of taxes. The law which abolished the office of township collector was passed by the general assembly several years ago, but it applied only to counties of less than 100,000 population. The 1930 federal census showed Lake county to have passed the 100,000 mark. Thus Lake county townships have been eligible to elect collectors since 1930.

The Special Ballot. In addition to the candidate ballot to be submitted to voters here next Tuesday there will be a small ballot carrying the proposition for levying a tax not to exceed one and two-tenths mills on the dollar for the establishment and maintenance of a public library for the township of Antioch. In the past the library has been supported by taxation within the village of Antioch, but free access has been given to all residents of the township. The proposition to make the library district include the township should carry by a substantial majority.

SEEK TO CUT INTEREST ON FARM MORTGAGES

Wheeler Amendment for
3 1/2% on Federal Loans
Passes Senate

Interest rates on millions of dollars of federal farm loans in Illinois and other states will be reduced from 4 1/2 to 3 1/2 per cent if the Wheeler amendment to the Farm Credit Act is enacted, reports the Illinois Agricultural Association.

The measure has passed the United States senate and is pending in the House. It would make the lower rate effective on all past and future farm loans of the federal government until 1937.

The American Farm Bureau Federation is actively supporting the measure. This position, we believe, is fully justified, said Earl C. Smith, president of the I. A. A. and a director in the national federation, because the government is now able to borrow money from the people for approximately one per cent less than when the Credit Act was passed in the year 1933.

While working consistently for a farm credit system fitted to the farmers' needs with interest rates comparable to those enjoyed by other groups, the Illinois Agricultural Association states that it has emphasized the need for restoring farm price levels and income last year was $1,000,000,000 greater than that of 1933 and approximately $2,000,000,000 or 40 per cent ahead of 1932, indicates that the program of organized farmers has brought results, says the association statement.

With the price of 14 basic farm commodities at or near pre-war parities, the I. A. A. sees the great job ahead of farmers is to maintain this relationship by keeping production in balance with demand at the parity price level.

Aids State in Plans for Grass Lake Park

Elmer Sorenson, state waterways inspector for northern Illinois, who is co-operating with state officials in plans for building a state park in Grass Lake area. The first unit of government CCC camps will be opened on Ed Smith's subdivision within the next two weeks to begin work on the east shore.

Schools Indian Princess To Appear on PTA Program April 8th

A real Indian princess, Tsalanli, internationally famous Indian prima donna, has been engaged by the local Parent-Teachers' association to sing here April 8, at the regular monthly meeting of the association to be held in the high school auditorium. A campaign to sell tickets to the program is being planned by officers of the organization.

Princess Tsalanli is of the Cherokees and Creeks, and she has risen from an Indian tepee to the foremost ranks in the music hall of fame. In addition to her singing she is unusually gifted as a pianist; she has composed several published works and has written many articles on Indian lore.

Senior Choose "The Poor Rich" for Class Play

The Senior play has been chosen, and is entitled, "The Poor Rich." It is a three-act farce comedy. The casts are as follows:

Bob Carpenter, a young college man, Powelle Simpson, Cropley Phillips, Lila Briggs, his mysterious sweetheart.

Virginia Tidmarsh, Jean Culver, Sam Carpenter, his father, Armand Dalgaard, Robert Ray Smith, Sarah Carpenter, his mother, Sarah Perry, Edith Murphy.

Louise Carpenter, his sister-in-law, Priscilla Brett, Jane Warriner, Ole Larson, a hired man and butler, Stanley Lucas, Ray King.

Nora Smithkins, a hired girl and French maid, Nora Arnold, Bertha Cremin, Lucinda Morgan, an inquisitive, gossip neighbor.

Jeannette Bellock, Margaret Denman, "Jake," a stranger, Herman Meinersmann.

The play is under the direction of Mrs. M. K. Phillips.

Mr. and Mrs. Stillson Give Banquet for High School Athletic Teams

Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stillson tendered a banquet for members of the Antioch High School basketball squad at 6:30 o'clock Saturday at their home on Spafford street. The color scheme of green and yellow was carried out in the decorations and also in the place-cards, the latter being small basketball booklets containing the history of the team for the year. A bouquet of yellow daffodils formed the centerpiece for the table.

Nineteen boys who have played on the school teams this year were present.

Work on Annual Is Progressing

The annual staff has been busy at work upon the "Sequoia," the yearbook of Antioch Township High School. Several pictures have been taken, and the final copies have been begun. They are being typed by the students of the typing class and must be finished by April 10. This year the annual will be on sale for a dollar.

Latin League Entertains

On Friday evening the Latin League will entertain Latin students who are now in school, their parents, and the faculty at the Roman Banquet. They will present a one-act play entitled, "Latin for a Day."

GRASS LAKE CCC IMPROVEMENT WILL COST $2,000,000

State Getting Quit Claim

Assurance that the big project, which has been in consideration for more than a year, would start immediately was given Thursday when twenty-five property owners met at Pregenzer's resort with Walter M. Smith, district state engineer, and L. Gunz of the state engineering department, who is securing quit claim deeds from property owners. The deeds are for property along the meandering shore line for state park purposes, and the giving of the deeds will in nowise deprive the property owners the use of their land, or the ownership of it beyond the high-water line, according to the state district engineer.

The purpose of the project is to improve the Grass Lake section by deepening the waterways so that unobstructed navigation may be had at all times, the damming of water at certain points, building islands, and beautifying the shoreline around the lake.

Will Beautify Lake.

Quit claim deeds have already been obtained for nearly all of the east shore line, and it is there that the work will start, according to Engineer Smith, who states that a beauty spot will be made there where thousands may enjoy what nature has to offer. The area will also serve as a place of conservation of game and fish. The dams will serve to maintain water levels and will aid navigation.

The project, which was brought to the attention of the state public works administration by Elmer Sorenson, state waterways inspector for this district, Ray Pregenzer, and other prominent members of the Lake County Waterways Improvement association, will be financed solely by the public works department under Director Robert Kingery, and all that must be furnished locally is the quit claim deeds from property owners. The plan is to extend the park all the way around Grass Lake.

The first unit of the CCC workers will build a camp on Ed Smith's property on the east shore, it was announced today, and other camps will be built as needed.

Fight Tuberculosis With Modern Weapons, Is Slogan for the Year

The Lake County Tuberculosis Association has received the Early Diagnosis Campaign supplies from the State Tuberculosis Association.

The material consists of booklets explaining modern methods of treating tuberculosis, the part nature plays in helping cure tuberculosis, how the sanatorium benefits in the cure, and what everyone should know about tuberculosis. There are also small posters for display, in addition to billboard posters which will be posted throughout the county.

This literature is for free distribution to anyone interested in knowing about tuberculosis.

The slogan of the campaign this year is "Fight tuberculosis with modern weapons."

4-H Club Rally at Grays Lake Friday

There will be a 4-H Club Party and Rally on Friday evening, March 29, at 8 o'clock, at the Grays Lake School Auditorium. Miss Martha Hensley and Frank Gingrich, District 4-H Club Advisers, will be present.

All girls and boys of Lake County between the ages of 10 and 20, parents and leaders, are cordially invited to attend this party.

There will be games, stunts, singing, talks, and fun for all.

Supt. Petty Attends Meeting at Springfield

County Superintendent of Schools W. C. Petty left Tuesday for Springfield where he attended a meeting of the state board of the Illinois Teachers' Reading Circle of which he is a member. The board makes selections of books for teachers.

The April First Jester

THOUSANDS DUE LAKE COUNTY FROM STATE SCHOOL FUND

Springfield, Ill., March 27.—Just where Lake county stands in the present school muddle in Illinois is revealed by some very pertinent statistics available to anyone who cares to make investigation. Cold figures, on file in the State House, show that:

Lake county in 1931 received 71.2 per cent of the moneys due it from the state's common school fund whereas Cook county got 100 per cent; in 1932 Lake county got only 61.6 per cent while Cook county got 75.3 per cent of its share. In 1933 Lake county got a mere 60.0 per cent while Cook was getting 80.7 per cent. This means that Lake county, for the three-year average, got only 64.1 per cent while Cook county was getting 85.1 per cent.

No longer is there intense and heated agitation in Chicago over the "school situation." No longer are groups of teachers descending upon the banks or the office of the school board. The Chicago newspapers are silent. All is quiet on the Chicago front.

This means that down-state counties are left to fight their school battles without help of the powerful influences that came to the rescue of the Chicago schools. But their abandonment is bringing a solidarity of action which down-state counties have never known in the past.

Members of school boards, parents, and other friends of the schools outside of Cook county are rallying, as never before, to make mass requests to the legislature for emergency legislation to relieve the critical situation their schools are facing.

These remember that Chicago, due to united effort, a solid front, and powerful political prestige, borrowed $23,000,000 from the federal government and met teachers' salaries in full. Many down-state schools owe their teachers for months and even years.

They remember that during the first two weeks of the present legislative session the "pegged levy" bill for Chicago was passed enabling the Chicago district to levy $43,000,000 for the present year regardless of rate limitations.

They remember that on the strength of this emergency legislation Chicago banks bought sufficient anticipation warrants to permit that city to continue to pay the salaries of its teachers, and other school employees, in full.

Crucial hardships continue in hundreds of down-state schools. Curricula are being cut, teaching staffs have been slashed and school rooms are overcrowded. Teachers are being forced to accept warrants, and where the legal limit for warrants has been reached, to accept "orders" which, in many cases, have no present value and likely never will have any.

With the increase in state revenues, amounting to more than 100 per cent in the last five years, mostly from non-property taxes and new sources, various state departments are gradually being restored to pre-depression salary levels. Friends of education are asking, "Why not help the down-state schools now?"

25 Hear Business Talk at Men's Dinner

Twenty-five Antioch men who attended the Men's club dinner at the high school Thursday evening heard a stirring address on "Business and the New Deal" by R. M. Plaster, of Moody's Investors' Service. The dinner was served in the high school cafeteria by the Aid Society of the Methodist church.

Hendee Intends To Carry His Fight To Supreme Court

Application for a rehearing of the mandamus action in which it upheld the decision of the lower court declaring Russ Alford, democratic candidate, as county clerk will be asked by Lew A. Hendee, present incumbent, he declared this week. Falling in this Hendee will appeal the case to the supreme court.

There is also a movement among some leaders of the Democratic party to determine if under the law the governor can declare the office as vacant and reappoint Alford to fill the post pending the outcome of the controversy between the two candidates. This, however, would be strenuously opposed by the Republican forces which contend that Hendee is the rightful incumbent of the office.

Hendee was elected as county clerk by a majority of 147 on the basis of figures returned by the canvassing board. This finding was attacked in a mandamus action filed by Alford in Circuit court and Judge Ralph J. Dady upheld Alford's claims that he was illegally deprived of 194 votes cast for him in Highwood and that 100 ballots were credited to Hendee which were not cast for that candidate in Round Lake. This would give Alford a lead of 187 votes.

Young Republican League Plans Big Party For Friday

One of the largest social gatherings of the week is expected to take part in the big party to be held in Masonic Temple, Waukegan, Friday night under the sponsorship of the Young People's Republican organization and Howard L. Scott, chairman of the Republican County Central committee and the executive committee of that group.

The event will include an extensive program of entertainment as well as dancing and refreshments. The events will start at 8:30 and close at 12:30.

More than 2,000 invitations have been sent out to members of the party and indications are that the affair will be a marked success.

Antioch Girls Attend Junior Red Cross Meet

Five Antioch High School girls, accompanied by Miss Cornelia Roberts, faculty member, yesterday afternoon attended a meeting of the Junior American Red Cross at the Waukegan Township High school where a program was given. Those attending from Antioch were Nora Arnold, Jeannette Peterson, Lena Pedersen, Doris Fitzgerald and Helen Van Patten. Representatives from Warren and Grant also attended.

These schools have recently enrolled in the Junior Red Cross through the chairman of this district, Mrs. William Marks.

Yesterday they heard Miss Wright of Chicago, who was the national delegate of the Junior Red Cross to the International convention in Tokyo, Japan. She told of her experience at that great meeting.

MR. AND MRS. POWLES ENTERTAIN BRIDGE CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Powles entertained their bridge club at their home on Harden Avenue, Thursday evening. Mrs. Ed Vos, Mrs. B. R. Burke and Mrs. Lester Osmond were prize winners. Mrs. Ed Vos, Mrs. B. R. Burke.

Mrs. A. J. Tiffany and Mrs. N. E. Sibley attended the Farm Bureau meeting on "Landscape Gardening" at Grayslake on Friday afternoon.

RECOVER LOOT TAKEN IN ANTIOCH DRUG STORE THEFT

Three Are Held on Burglary
Charge; Bonds Set at $10,000

Fast action on the part of Lake county deputy sheriffs resulted Saturday in the arrest of four suspects in connection with the robbery of King's drug store in Antioch early Friday morning, and the recovery of more than $500 in merchandise and cash.

One of the men was released Monday following the preliminary hearing before Justice Harry Hoyt, when it was shown he had no part in the robbery. The other three were ordered held to await the action of the grand jury. They are: Adolph Arizona, 2125 South Third street, Maywood; Alfred Archambault, Antioch, and L. Cohen, Antioch. Archambault and Cohen were ordered held on bonds of $10,000 each, and Adolph Arizona was held on bonds of $5,000 on a charge of impersonating an officer.

Hint Woman Involved.

Deputies found that entrance to the building was gained through a second story window in the rear of the store. Taking $10 from registers and an additional $115 from the store safe, the robbers then took bonded liquor of the best brands and many cartons of cigarettes and cigars which were carried to a car parked a short distance away.

The finding of a woman's footprints near where the car was parked led officers to believe that a woman, probably the "bright-eyes" or lookout for the men, may be involved in the robbery. Footprints, auto tracks and other clues led to a speedy identification of the suspects in the case, according to the deputies assigned to the case immediately after the robbery was reported by George Garland shortly after 7:00 a. m. Friday.

Sheriff Praises Kennedy. Credit for the speedy solution of the case and the roundup of suspects goes to Chief Deputy Tom Kennedy and Deputy Christian, Sheriff Lawrence Doolittle said yesterday. These easy and high-handed robberies in Lake county must stop, the sheriff said.

The robbery Friday was the fifth at the King store since last December when the place was robbed on four successive nights by Charles Hoge. On the fourth night Hoge walked into the arms of Deputy Stanley Christian who was guarding the store. Hoge is now doing time at the state farm at Joliet.

RUSH SEED LOANS TO NEEDY FARMERS

Farm Credit Administration
Makes 60 Millions Available for Loans

Sixty million dollars is being made available for seed loans to needy farmers, according to announcement made by the farm credit administration.

The bill appropriating the money was signed by President Roosevelt last night and today Governor William I. Myers of the farm credit administration announced the loans would be disbursed through regional offices located at Springfield, Mass., Memphis, Dallas, St. Louis, Minneapolis, Salt Lake City, Omaha, Wichita, Baltimore and Spokane.

Only farmers cooperating with the government's crop control program are eligible for the loans, which will be limited to a maximum of $500. No loan, however, may be made that is greater than actually needed to purchase seed and fertilizer.

Myers also announced that the loans will be made only to farmers unable to obtain advances from local banks, production credit associations or other sources.

Farmers needing the emergency loans must apply to county crop loan committees which already are in existence in every county. The county committee will forward the applications to the regional offices for approval.

TOWNSHIP ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY

Next Tuesday, April 2, is annual election day for all townships in this state. On that date will also be held the annual township meetings for the transaction of local public business relating to tax levies and other matters.

Except for district school elections and those of villages, the township election is nearest the people in the matter of affairs of local government. For this reason every qualified voter in the township should exercise his right of franchise. In the past long crusades have been made for the right to vote, and it is surprising to note that so seldom is a full vote called out unless matters of national importance are involved. Every election is important.

Those who neglect to vote have small cause to complain about the way governmental affairs are conducted, whether they be national or municipal.

In Antioch township voters will find a well qualified group of candidates to choose from next Tuesday. Don't fail to vote and then, win or lose, give the elected official full co-operation in the conduct of his office.

THE NEXT PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN

According to all signs, the Presidential campaign of 1936 is likely to make that of 1932—which was considered exceptionally bitter—look like a tea party. Issues are forming, forces are appearing, that are entirely unprecedented in American politics.

It seems inevitable that there will be a third party in the field—and it seems equally inevitable that that party will be of the extreme left. It may be led by Huey Long, backed by Father Coughlin, and use as its appeal the "Every Man a King" thesis. It may be led by a Townsend Plan advocate, promising prosperity for all through governmental largesse to the aged. It may be led by someone standing for something we haven't yet heard of.

Few think that the third party candidate would win—the electoral College system of counting votes for the Presidency makes that practically impossible, as Roosevelt the first discovered, and as La Follette the elder did after him. The third party's importance lies in what effect it will have on the vote obtained by the regular Republican and Democratic party candidates—and therein is an opportunity for endless conjecture.

Bickers of the President pooh-pooh the third party, say he is certain to win a sweeping victory in '36 whether the movement materializes or not. Opponents of the President hold that the third party would draw millions of votes that would otherwise go to Mr. Roosevelt, would thus indirectly cause the election of a conservative Republican, who would have support of most business men, together with the party's established following.

It was that aspect of the question which General Johnson spoke on in his amazing speech of a fortnight ago. Whatever you think of the General's views, you have to admit he has courage, he isn't afraid to speak his mind. In his speech, he made a bitter attack on Long and Coughlin and all they stood for. Then he turned and lashed the conservatives who might encourage them in order to draw support away from Roosevelt and split the liberal-radical camp. General Johnson said that such political opportunism pushes the American democracy steadily toward "a licking or a dictator." It is an interesting fact that, following the speech, the General's views were heartily endorsed in many substantial quarters—including newspapers, public men and industrialists.

A question of the hour is, How does Mr. Roosevelt's strength compare to what it was a year ago? The answer, made by boiling down the opinion of a legion of observers, is that he is slipping—but that he still had the confidence of the bulk of the voters. That, of course, doesn't answer the question of how far he may slip—or have regained or added strength—by next year. That, in turn, is going to depend on the state of recovery.

At the present time the recovery program has failed in various important particulars—and, in addition, it has become confused with the reform program. Unemployment soars. More people are on relief than ever. Industry is sitting still, and many leaders seem pessimistic. A belief is prevalent that the President's program has lost direction—that it is whirling around in circles, is going nowhere.

It is that fact which supports the hopes of third party radicals—they feel that the people, if they see the failure of a more moderate program, will go for one that is really left-wing. And the conservatives, strangely enough, base their hopes on exactly the same thing—they believe that a Roosevelt collapse would send voters scurrying back to the right-wing of economic thought.

What is right? Guess as much as you like—but don't bet on it.

AGRICULTURE LOOKS FORWARD

There is a growing feeling on the part of unprejudiced authorities that the Federal government's farm relief program has been a relative failure, in the light of the great hopes that were held out for it when it was inaugurated.

This feeling seems to be shared, to an extent, by high government officials, who are planning changes in the program whereby the government will act less in an administrative capacity and more as an advisor to the farmer.

The upshot of this is that the farmer himself must redouble his efforts to solve his own problems, and smooth his own road. It would be a poor thing indeed if American agriculture came to depend on government as a great white father to which it could turn for aid in any crisis, real or imagined. Government should obviously give all possible aid and support to agriculture, as it does to other groups—but it should take extreme care that the farmer does not become a ward of the state in the process.

Certain groups of farmers, totaling hundreds of thousands, are and have been working their way out of depression through organized, cooperative action. They have banded together in great cooperative organizations, whose purpose is to make production and distributing machinery more efficient, and to increase agriculture's bargaining power. These farmers are self-reliant, awake to conditions—in brief, they are individualists, cooperating with other individualists to achieve a common aim. That typifies the kind of "farm relief" that, in the long run, will really produce desirable and permanent results.

FRIEND OF THE DARK ANGEL

The average motorist, however modest he may be in other respects, becomes an egomaniac as soon as he takes the wheel of his car.

He believes that traffic regulations should be rigidly enforced—so far as other drivers are concerned—but that he should be an exception to the rule. John Jones should be forced to keep down to twenty or thirty miles an hour—but he, whose abilities are hardly second to those of Sir Malcolm Campbell, can be trusted to drive as fast as he pleases.

The accident statistics demonstrate how tragically wrong this average motorist is. Nine out of ten accidents occurring last year were directly the fault of drivers or pedestrians. In only one out of ten was the mechanical condition of the car to blame. And in the overwhelming majority of instances the factor that led to the mishap was excessive speed. The best proof of that lies in the fact that the rate of death per accident on highways—where speeds are naturally higher than on streets—was more than 100 per cent greater than the average for all accidents combined. In city accidents, the rate of death per accident was 52 per cent worse between intersections, where motorists speed up, than at intersections, where the bulk of drivers instinctively slow down.

A heavy foot on the throttle is the best friend the Dark Angel has. At the present time, campaigns are under way in all states and most cities to enforce reasonable traffic regulations. The driver who thinks he can "safely" drive as fast as he wants, wherever he wants, must be taught the error of his ways.

THE POLITICAL SNAILS

The continued political agitation to confiscate capital under the guise of redistribution of wealth and income, to increase taxes to the breaking point, to compete with private enterprise with government business undertakings in many lines of endeavor, and to destroy holding companies and the savings of millions of helpless investors, is bearing fruit—it is discouraging, if not actually preventing normal business recovery.

Unemployment continues at a peak figure according to official reports, and the number of families on relief rolls is at record point.

How long before the great mass of American citizens will realize that their livings, their jobs and their savings come only from industrial activity, individual opportunity and private enterprise, remains to be seen.

Political doles, political jobs, political control of business and the individual, results in wholesale public charity, destruction of opportunity, exorbitant taxation.

Politics produces no wealth. Instead it absorbs the stored savings of centuries, just as a snail absorbs the leaf of the plant it finally destroys.

THE LAWYER EXPLAINS

By Attorney Bernard J. Juron

LIMITATIONS

The subject entitled "Limitations" is of considerable importance to every litigant and business man, and is a feature that enters into every lawsuit as a preliminary consideration. As the word indicates, the subject intends to limit the rights of persons. For instance, the law specifically states that an open account outlives within a period of five years from the date it is due, while a note, being an instrument in writing, does not outlaw until ten years from the date it is due. The law, however, provides that if any payments be made on account, then the period of limitations will run from the date of the last payment. Other provisions of common interest may be enumerated as follows:

Actions for libel and slander must be commenced within one year. Actions for personal injuries or malicious prosecution must be commenced within two years. A judgment expires after seven years. However, it may be renewed or revived at any time within twenty years.

The law of limitations applies also to various other rights, proceedings and criminal statutes. By that we mean that rights arising under the Federal laws are governed by Federal limitations. Rights arising under

State law are governed by State limitations, and rights arising under village or city ordinances are governed by them.

When a note or an account or right of action of any kind is outlawed, the general reference to such a condition is that the Statute of Limitations had run, and no recovery can be had. It is generally a custom, where a Toldor has a note, for instance, which is about to become outlawed, to have a judgment entered on such note, which thereby revives the claim for a seven-year period.

In the next issue we shall take up the subject of Master in Chancery.

Invention of Lace

Germany claims the invention of lace. A tombstone in Annaberg reads: "Here lies Barbara Uttman, died 14 January, 1575, whose invention of lace in 1561 made her the benefactress of the Hartz Mountains." Barbara Uttman, however, learned to make pillow lace from a Brechtend exile. She set up a workshop in Annaberg employing 30,000 workers. French refugees in northern Germany improved lace-making there and Italians influenced work in Bavaria and Saxony, but German lace never acquired artistic reputation outside of Germany.

FORD V-8

In A Class By Itself

THERE is no way to compare the Ford V-8 with any other car because there is no other car like it.

The Ford enables you to step up into the fine-car class in performance, beauty, comfort and safety. But there is no stepping up in price. That is kept down by Ford low-profit policies and unique manufacturing methods. These are as different as the car itself.

It takes eight cylinders to give the modern performance you need these days. The Ford is powered by a V-8—the finest type of eight-cylinder engine. You have to pay more than $2000 for that in any other car.

The "Keystone State"

On the Fourth of July, 1774, the Continental congress convened in Philadelphia to vote upon adoption of the Declaration of Independence and thus decide whether the British empire should secede from the British empire. Before the Pennsylvania delegation arrived, notes G. R. Turner in the Kansas City Times, twelve states had voted, with the result that six were in favor of independence and six were opposed to separation from the mother country. When the Pennsylvania came in, John Morton cast the deciding vote for independence. Thus Pennsylvania, by its vote, decided the great issue and rightly earned the popular name of "the Keystone State."

Founding of Cleveland

Cleveland was founded in July, 1796, by surveyors from Connecticut who represented another company, which had bought a strip of land along Lake Erie. This land, says the Cleveland Plain Dealer, had been claimed by Connecticut by right of its old British charter, but it had relinquished rule over it to the federal government and had sold the land to the Connecticut land company. The company, in turn, resold farms and town lots to people in Connecticut, New York and elsewhere, and these settled in the city and the region around it.

Degrees of Unbelief

Infidel is a term given to disbelievers in religion by those who do believe, rather than by themselves. An infidel is one who does not believe in religion, or, often, in the particular religion of those about him. An atheist is one who denies the existence of a God; while an agnostic is one who professes ignorance as to whether or not there may be a God, a future existence, etc., and who often holds that man cannot possibly prove the matter either way. Thomas Huxley was the inventor of the latter term.

How De Soto Fooled the Indians

De Soto's soldiers, when they started on their expedition wore leather joublets over coats of mail. Since the Indian arrows pierced the coats of mail, the soldiers discarded these and wore instead wadded vests and skirts wide enough to cover the breast and haunches of the horses.

Honor Canoe Landing

At the spot at Maketu, in the Bay of Plenty, where the first Arawa canoe landed in Australia, 600 years ago, the famous Arawa Maori tribe has set aside 10 acres as a public park.

Limited Museum Visitors

In 1701, the British museum permitted only 15 persons at a time to visit the exhibits and they could stay only two hours.

First King of Hearts

The first king of hearts was called Carolus (after Charles VI of France), the father of playing cards in Europe. Three hundred and twenty-five years later, Bonnie Prince Charlie used Kings of Hearts as "visiting cards" to bestow upon his various hosts and hostesses.—Pearson's Weekly.

Ornaments Indicate Residence

Women of Walcheren, Holland, wear a gold ornament on the side of their head on market day to indicate the village from which they come. In medieval dress, crinole-skirted skirts to their feet, some of them arrive on bicycle.

Idealism

The power of idealism is a curious power of seeing what we like or admire and then trying to imitate it; seeing things that are beautiful and trying to make other things like them; this power of idealism being a great guiding force in the upward movement of humanity.—Kansas City Times.

Poetic Justice

Poetic justice is that ideal justice, according to which crime should be punished and virtues rewarded, regarded by authors and critics of the former pseudo-classical school as proper to a poem, drama or other literary work.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 24.

The Golden Text was, "We unto him that saith to the wood, Awake; to the dumb stone, Arise, it shall teach! Behold, it is laid over with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it" (Habakkuk 2:10).

Among the citations comprised in the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "If any be a bearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man building his house upon a rock. For he beareth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whose looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed" (James 1:23-25).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Emerge gently from matter into Spirit. Think not to thwart the spiritual ultimate of all things, but come naturally into Spirit through better health and morals and as the result of spiritual growth" (p. 485).

Purple in Snail Shells

In the days of ancient Rome the purple in the shell of certain snails was used in the making of Tyrian purple, a dye reserved for the nobility. The snail used this ink to create a smoke screen about itself in time of danger.

Other species of snails are known to bear poison glands which enable the snail to eject a "stream of poison" several inches. The highly ornamental shells of several species are used as umbrella handles.

Astrologers Licensed
Despite the fact that astrology has been ridiculed by intelligent people and even banned by law in many countries for 4,800 years, it remains today the most elaborately organized of all superstitions, writes C. C. Carley, Washington, D. C., in Collier's Weekly. In the United States, astrologers still are licensed to forecast future events.

Edison Disliked Decorations
Upon Thomas Edison's second trip to Europe the French Telephone company offered him a decoration which required that he wear a long sash. But the Ohioan flatly refused with the assertion that he couldn't "stand for that." Persuaded by his wife, he did however consent to wear the little red button of the League of Honor. But whenever he saw any American approaching he would slip the button into his pocket for fear, as he said, "they might think I am trying to show off."

The Gregorian Calendar
Britain was neither the first nor last country to adopt the Gregorian calendar. The modern calendar was promulgated by Pope Gregory XIII in 1582, and adopted at once by Spain, Portugal and part of Italy, the remainder of the Catholic world soon following. Great Britain adopted the new style in 1752 and Sweden and Tuscany about the same time. But Russia clung to the Julian calendar until after the 1917 revolution and the Greek church did not give it up until 1923.

Surprise! Surprise!

Now an invitation to my house, I always feel, calls for a surprise. One day after planning a fruit salad for a few friends coming in to sew, I decided I needed a wafer to go with it. One of the usual cheese wafers, so I decided to make my Wheat Wafers and add cheese for the surprise.

Whole Wheat Cheese Wafers

(36 small wafers)
 1/2 pound grated American cheese
 1/3 cup of whole wheat flour
 1 tablespoon of shortening
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon of paprika
 1 tablespoon cold water.

Mix the cheese, flour, shortening, salt and paprika to a crumbly mass. Add the water and work to stiff dough. Place on a floured surface and roll thin. But into any desired shapes (square or small rectangular pieces are always nice). Place on a baking sheet and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) until slightly browned. The wafers should be very crisp.

Pennsylvania Dutch Spinach

3 cups of chopped raw spinach
 4 slices of bacon
 3 tablespoons of flour
 1 1/2 cups of water or potato water
 2 tablespoons of sugar
 1 tablespoon of vinegar
 Salt and pepper to taste
 2 hard cooked eggs

Place the cleaned and drained chopped spinach in a bowl. Dice the bacon, heat in a skillet, and stir until well crisped. Remove the crisp bacon and add to the spinach. To the remaining fat, add the flour and smooth to a paste. Add the hot water or potato water and cook to a thin smooth sauce, stirring constantly. Add the sugar, vinegar, and salt and pepper. Pour over the spinach, stir well, and serve with sliced hard-cooked eggs and boiled or steamed potatoes.

Spaghetti and Tuna Fish Salad

1 cup spaghetti
 1/2 cup chopped celery
 3 cups chopped cabbage
 1 chopped green pepper
 2 tablespoons chopped onion
 1 medium can tuna fish
 1/4 cup salad dressing
 1/4 cup cream.

Cook the spaghetti in boiling salted water until tender. Drain and chill. Mix together the spaghetti, celery, cabbage, pepper, onion and fish. Season to taste and blend with the dressing which has been thinned with cream.

Macaroni with Creamed Vegetables

1/2 package macaroni
 Boiling salted water
 3 cups white sauce
 2 cups cooked mixed vegetables
 2 hard cooked eggs
 1 teaspoon minced parsley.

Cook the macaroni until tender in the water. Drain thoroughly and add to it one cup of the sauce. In the remaining sauce, which should be well seasoned, heat the vegetables, using as large a variety as is convenient—peas, beans, carrots, young onions, asparagus, green pepper, etc., dicing such vegetables as require it. Arrange the macaroni as a border in a serving dish, pour the vegetables into the center and garnish with the egg whites, cut into rings, and the yolks pressed through a sieve, and sprinkle minced parsley over all.

Molded Spaghetti Salmon Loaf

1 package spaghetti, cooked
 1 can salmon
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/4 teaspoon paprika
 2 teaspoons lemon juice
 1/2 cup white sauce
 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Have the spaghetti cooked until just tender and see that it is thoroughly drained. Put a layer into a well greased pan. Remove all skin, oil and bone from the salmon, flake it and blend with the salt, paprika, lemon juice, sauce and parsley. Place this in the center of the pan and surround it on all sides with the remaining spaghetti. Cover with a greased paper and steam half an hour. Unmold, garnish with parsley and slices of lemon and serve with cream, hollandaise or shrimp sauce.

Macaroni with Sausages

Boiling salted water
 2/3 package macaroni
 6 sausages
 4 tablespoons buttered crumbs
 Stock or gravy
 1/3 teaspoon pepper

Salt.
 Cook the macaroni in the water for fifteen minutes, drain, add one cup stock or gravy, and complete the cooking, allowing the liquid to be absorbed by the macaroni. Add the pepper and additional salt if necessary, turn one-third of the macaroni into a baking dish, lay on it half the sausages, which have been partly cooked by steaming them with the macaroni after adding the stock or gravy, then split or cut into halves. Now put in another layer of macaroni, the remainder of the sausages and the last layer of macaroni. Sprinkle the crumbs over the top and bake about 20 minutes in a moderate oven—375 degrees F.

Macaroni Dressing for Fowl

Chicken giblets
 3 cups diced cooked macaroni
 2 tablespoons minced onion
 2 tablespoons butter
 1/4 teaspoon salt
 1/3 teaspoon paprika
 1 minced green pepper, optional

OUR CHILD AND THE SCHOOL

By Dr. ALLEN G. IRELAND
 Director, Physical and Health Education
 New Jersey State Department of Public Instruction

To Aid the Health Diet

I came across a chart of the ideal health diet. It was the best of its kind I had seen, readable, understandable, and correct. And in the excitement of discovery I showed it to a young mother whom I knew to be a stickler for the correct thing in child raising.

In a twinkling she took the wind out of my sails by saying with a little touch of justifiable pride: "That's nothing, I have that beat a mile." Thereupon she showed me an admirable thing of her own invention. And the best of it is, it actually works.

It, too, was a chart, a home-made affair. First, I should say this mother has two boys and a girl. Her chart, hand colored, attractively drawn, attempted to show in terms of child interest, the values of the several essential foods. In the left-hand column were statements such as these: "This makes chinning the bar easy." "This gives speed to running." "This helps to make graceful dancers." "This keeps Daddy well to earn a living for us," and so on.

Opposite these were colored drawings. In one place there were four glasses of milk; in another, a bowl of fruit; or a plate of bread and butter. And so it went, down through the list of essential food items, including meat, fish, eggs, nuts, all kinds of vegetables, and milk products such as cheese, ice cream, and custards.

The chart was hung in a conspicuous place in the kitchen. Sometimes the children are allowed to select meals from the chart. At other times, the mother points out what she has planned for the next meal. The object of the game each time is to pick out a balanced meal, in which there is a variety but with some item from each of the essentials.

The question of home work rises again; Dr. Ireland will discuss it in his next article.

Sixteen Health Rules

1. Ventilate every room you occupy.
2. Wear light, loose and porous clothes.
3. Seek out-of-doors occupation and recreation.
4. Sleep out-of-doors if you can.
5. Avoid over-eating and over-weight.
6. Avoid excess of high protein foods, such as meat and eggs, highly seasoned foods and salt.
7. Eat some hard, some bulky and some raw foods daily.
8. Eat slowly and taste your food.
9. Use sufficient water internally and externally.
10. Secure thorough intestinal elimination daily.
11. Stand, sit, and walk erect.
12. Do not allow poisons and infections to enter the body.
13. Keep the teeth, gums and tongue clean.
14. Work, play, rest and sleep in moderation.
15. Breathe deeply; take deep-breathing exercises several times a day.
16. Keep serene.

My Favorite Recipes

Frances Lee Barton says:

THERE'S something so friendly about waffles. Particularly on a Sunday evening when it's cold as the North Pole outside and friends of the family have just dropped in—then it's a perfect time to get them all together—in front of the fire, if possible—and let them watch you prepare these delicate, crispy corn waffles. They smell as grand as they look—so better be prepared to make a lot. Oh yes—popular vote says lots of maple-flavored syrup!

Corn Waffles

2 cups sifted flour; 2 teaspoons double-acting baking powder; 1/2 teaspoon salt; 3 egg yolks, well beaten; 1 1/4 cups milk; 5 tablespoons melted butter or other shortening; 1 cup canned corn; 3 egg whites, stiffly beaten.
 Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Combine egg yolks and milk; add gradually to flour, beating only until smooth. Add shortening and corn. Fold in egg whites. Bake in hot waffle iron. Serve with butter and maple-flavored syrup. Makes five 4-section waffles.

Better Breakfasts

WHY not make tomorrow a red letter day by including a dish reddened with tasty tomatoes in your breakfast? It will look good, it will taste good, and, with the proper accompaniments, it will start the day off right. Here is a suggestion for such a breakfast menu:

Orange Juice
Omelet with Cream
Poached Eggs in Tomato Sauce
Toast
Poached Eggs in Tomato Sauce:
 Press the contents of a No. 2 can tomatoes through a sieve, and bring to boiling in a skillet. In this hot liquid poach four eggs, lifting them out when done onto buttered toast on a hot platter. Meanwhile have one small chopped onion sautéing in two tablespoons butter. Add two tablespoons flour, stir smooth and as soon as the eggs are out of the tomato juice, add it slowly to the tomato juice, stirring until smooth and creamy. Season to taste and pour over the eggs. Serves four.

That Old Debate

There is an old debate as to what is the best part of breakfast, but everyone agrees that good or bad coffee makes or breaks it. Tastes differ as to the palatability of various coffee blends, but everyone is agreed that you can't make good coffee out of any blend unless it is strictly fresh.

So why not have it fresh? The way to do that is so exceedingly simple that it is no more of a problem to a bride than it is to a veteran housekeeper. There are many blends and brands of coffee now packed in vacuum cans and they all stay strictly fresh till they are opened. Be sure that the words "vacuum packed" are on the can of coffee you buy, and you will have solved that part of your coffee problem.

Meaning of "Junket"

The word junket as often applied to congress was originally applied to a banquet, or a picnic or excursion with feasting but it has come to mean a trip at public expense by government officials to some distant post, territory or public works for the purpose, they claim, of investigating conduct or for inspection. Congressmen, especially, have been noted in the past for their junkets to distant regions flying the American flag.

Naval Nations

Only the United States, Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan are the real "naval nations." The next forty countries have only insignificant fleets, while the next twenty have none at all, this latter class including Belgium which, for economic reasons, abolished its navy in 1928. Collier's Weekly.

Helpful Hints

To prevent milk from sticking to the saucepan when boiled in it rinse the pan with hot water before putting in the milk.

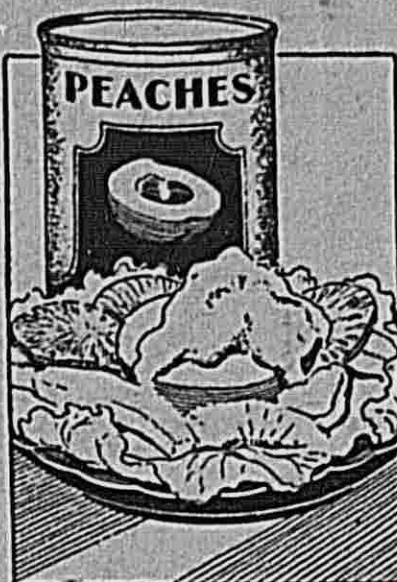

Chicken salad is made more delicious by adding a little fruit such as pineapple, or apple.

If colored wax is dropped on the tablecloth immediately place a piece of white blotting paper on which is sprinkled some white powder on either side of the stain and iron with a medium hot iron.

Never put the cog wheels of your egg beater in water.

A teaspoon of salts in each gallon of water used in washing and rinsing colored materials will usually prevent fading or running.

A little sugar added to the water in which carrots, turnips, peas, etc., are cooked will help bring out the flavor.

Peach Salads

GINGER PEACH SALAD:
 Drain the peach halves from half a No. 2 1/2 can and lay in lettuce leaves on salad plates. Mash one cream cheese, add two tablespoons mayonnaise, and cream together. Crumble three gingersnaps and mix in carefully. Pile this mixture on top of the peaches, and chill. Garnish with the rest of three-fourths cup mayonnaise. Serves four.

Peach and Cottage Cheese Salad:
 Have everything very cold. Drain four peach halves (half a No. 2 can), and place, cut side up, in lettuce leaves. Pile one-half cup cottage cheese on top, put a dash of English Chutney (you will need two tablespoons of it) on top of each, and garnish with four tablespoons mayonnaise. Serves four.

These Are Decorative

Jack-O-Lantern Salad:
 Chill twelve small-sized canned peach halves, drain and slightly scoop out cavities to make holes larger. Mix one-half cup halved, seeded white grapes and one-half cup chopped salted almonds with enough mayonnaise to moisten. Stuff cavities with this and then press the two halves together. Place each stuffed peach in a wreath of shredded lettuce. Make a Jack-O-Lantern face on each with bits and strips of date. Makes six salads.

Five Fruit Salad:
 Drain a No. 2 can peach halves, a No. 2 can grapefruit and a 10-ounce can figs, and chill. Remove all the skin and fibre from two oranges, and cut in thin circles or in sections. Cut two bananas in fingers. Place a peach half in the center of a bed of lettuce and fill the cavity with cream mayonnaise to which has been added bits of preserved ginger and chopped salted almonds. Arrange the other fruits in groups around the peach. Serves eight.

Birds

The largest bird in the world is the ostrich. The smallest is Helena's hummingbird, found in Costa Rica.

Canvasback ducks average 145 feet per second in flight, or more than a mile and one-half per minute.

At least twelve birds in addition to the parrot can be taught to talk. Thirty-eight different kinds of birds are mentioned in the Bible.

Of all living things birds have the keenest vision.

Doctor—I can cure your husband of talking in his sleep, if that's all you want.

Wife—Never mind about that. Can you give him something to make his talk more distinctly, so I can understand what he says?

Wife—Didn't you say, before we were married, that you would go through fire and water for me? Hubby—I did, but I didn't promise to go through bankruptcy.

Quibble—Did you ever pause and reflect on the opportunities you have missed?

Wiggle—No. It would be just my luck to miss some more while I was reflecting.

Heaviest of All Dogs

The heaviest of all dogs are the St. Bernards, which range in weight from 160 to 225 pounds. The largest dogs are the Irish wolfhounds, but they do not weigh as much as the St. Bernards, being rangier and taller.

SUGGESTS NEW REMEDY FOR SPRING FEVER

T. B. Assn. Condemns Old Spring Tonic of Sulphur and Molasses

New methods for preventing that lazy feeling, commonly known as spring fever, which are more pleasant and effective than grandmother's sulphur and molasses, are explained today in an educational bulletin issued by the Illinois Tuberculosis Association.

Ordinarily, spring fever is due to the fact that the individual has led a sedentary life during the cold months, and because he had not changed his diet to suit the warmer temperatures. This seasonal malady should not be confused with the tired feeling which is one of the first symptoms of tuberculosis. If general lassitude is accompanied by loss of weight, indigestion, and a cough, these symptoms should cause the individual sufficient concern to go to his doctor for an examination, the bulletin says.

"The old idea of dosing the whole family with sulphur and molasses or sassafras tea as a spring tonic was to thin the blood, which was thought to have become thick and sluggish during the winter. This is fallacious," the bulletin points out. "Although molasses contains vitamins and minerals needed by the human system, the addition of sulphur improves neither the taste nor the effectiveness of the mixture."

The Illinois Tuberculosis Association urges that everyone have an annual physical examination as a matter of course. Early spring is an excellent time, as it follows the period when all sorts of communicable diseases are prevalent.

For people who have no serious physical defects, spring fever may be overcome by eating fewer of the heat-producing foods, such as fats, sugars

Boy Scout News

Scoutmaster Rev. Sittler and 24 Boy Scouts went on a hike last Saturday. Some of the tenderfoot scouts were able to pass second class tests.

After working up an appetite by playing, the boys cooked their own dinner over a camp fire, and at 3:30 they returned home, tired, but anxious to know when the next hike would be.

Rev. Sittler on Monday night found himself the victim of a surprise at a party arranged in his honor by the scout troop. Forty were present at the dinner served by Mrs. Canode, Mrs. Horton and Mrs. Sittler. Following the party the boys went to the high school gym to hold their regular weekly meeting.

Rev. Sittler was presented with a gift from the troop.

All boys in the community are invited to join the local Boy Scout troop.

Men to Be Hosts at Next P. T. A. Party

Men members of the Antioch Parent-Teachers' association will be hosts at the next card party, it was announced today. At least one meeting at which the men serve is held each year.

Twelve tables of bridge and three of 500 were in play at the card party held by the group at the grade school Monday night. Winners at bridge were Mrs. W. W. Warriner, Mrs. C. K. Anderson, Mrs. Hans Von Holst, Miss Mildred Byrnes, Mrs. James Dunn, C. C. Frye, Henry Harvey, Dr. R. D. Williams and Lester Osmond. Best scores in 500 were made by Miss Doris Mason and Carl Ball.

Dickens' Own Life Mirrored In His Novel

"David Copperfield" Based On Experiences of the Author's Childhood

"David Copperfield," the all-star feature which comes to the Genesee Theatre starting Monday is more than a classical work of fiction, transferred to the screen.

In a certain measure it is the life story of Charles Dickens, the novelist.

On the screen, "David Copperfield" retains all the spirit of comedy, pathos and romance that distinguished the novel. The picture boasts a cast of sixty-five stars and featured players in the principal roles. It is a David O. Selznick production for Metro-Goldwyn Mayer, with George Cukor directing.

Among the brilliant players are W. C. Fields as Micawber; Frank Lawton and little Freddie Bartholomew sharing the title role; Lionel Barrymore, Madge Evans, Maureen O'Sullivan, Edna May Oliver, Lewis Stone, Elizabeth Allan, Roland Young and Basil Rathbone.

Rotnour Presents Two More Plays At The Crystal

The J. B. Rotnour Players will present only two more plays at the Crystal Theatre, this week Friday and the following Friday, April 4. This week the play being offered is an outstanding comedy drama, "Hell's Port." The play centers in the Congo district. The play is different from the usual drama; the action is different, and the stage settings are unique and colorful.

The final play of the season to be presented by the players from the Crystal stage will be "In Wyoming," a play that has been especially engaged for the players' last appearance here. It gives a touch of western romance, domestic drama and whirlwind comedy.

The company has been playing here in co-operation with local business firms who give free tickets for the performances. Get tickets from firms listed in the Crystal ad, then pay only a dime at the box office. Curtain at 8:15.

Chicago World's Fair Demolition Pushed; Salvage Sold Throughout Country

Demolition of the buildings and equipment owned by A Century of Progress is producing salvage in the form of over 200,000 feet of plaster board, plywood, and lumber each day, it was announced yesterday by R. A. Goldman of Barker, Goldman, and Lubin, wrecking company in charge of the work.

Last week nine carloads of material were shipped to lumber yards in Indiana, Michigan, Kentucky, and Iowa. Over 100 carloads of structural steel has been sold to a New York firm to be shipped on barges through the Great Lakes.

Five hundred men are employed on the Fair grounds by the wrecking company. Mr. Goldman stated that when the daylight time lengthens, the wrecking will be placed on a two shift basis. He said that when lake traffic opens freight steamers will be loaded from the Century of Progress docks.

A new excavating shovel especially designed for tearing out concrete pillars has been ordered for excavating work. The shovel, Diesel powered, will be the only one of its kind in operation.

All of the structures occupying 400 acres must be cleared away by the end of next November.

Saccharine Coal Tar Product Saccharine is the name of ortho-sulphobenzoic acid and is called scientifically orthobenzenesulphonic acid. It was discovered by Ira Remsen and C. Fahberg in 1879 in the course of an investigation carried out at Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, Md. It is a coal tar product. It is many times sweeter than sugar. About eighth grain tablet is sufficient for a cupful of coffee or tea.

The Ace of Spades

The ace of spades was called Spadille for the games of ombre and quadrille, and was used as an ingredient, together with two aces, twenty-four spiders, seven toads, and a ewe lamb's heart, for the concoction said to have assisted the Corsican with to foresee Napoleon's career.—Penson's Weekly.

Odd Beliefs Millions of Americans who are otherwise intelligent still believe that fish is a brain food, that they harm a watch by turning its hands backward, and that rats through some instinct always desert a ship before it starts on an ill-fated voyage.—Collier's Weekly.

This Week in Washington

by RALPH E. CHURCH

Washington, D. C., March 23—For two months the $4,880,000,000 appropriation bill has been debated in the halls of Congress. Upon the request of the White House the measure passed the House of Representatives without delay and in the form desired by the Administration. Under the rule adopted for the consideration of this bill on the floor of the House the time was limited and members were precluded from making any major amendments. The Senate, however, has been less willing to yield to White House demands and the bill has been the subject of all manner of parliamentary maneuvering and proposed amendments, although it is a fair presumption that it will be passed ultimately in a form acceptable to the President.

On Thursday afternoon Senator William E. Borah, Republican of Idaho, surprised the Senate and created no little concern on the part of the Administration who he proposed a "rider" to the bill to restore the anti-trust laws which had been suspended by the NRA. He and Senator Carter Glass, Democrat, of Virginia, have been the outstanding opponents to the National Recovery Administration, and the adoption of Senator Borah's amendment would have meant an end to all price fixing and production agreements now written in the codes.

At the time Senator Borah made the proposal, which was defeated by a margin of only 10 votes, the Democratic Floor Leader, Joseph T. Robinson, was out of the city. The question arose among the Democratic membership of the Senate whether to prolong the debate on the proposed amendment until Senator Robinson could return or to allow the question to come to a vote. At this writing it is reported that the Administration Senators desire to dispose of the bill before Senator Huey Long returns from Louisiana on Monday. That doubtless prompted the decision to bring Senator Borah's amendment to a vote notwithstanding the absence of the Floor Leader Robinson.

Two attempts, one by Senator Alva B. Adams, Democrat, of Colorado, and one by Senator Harry F. Byrd, Democrat, of Virginia, to reduce the size of the appropriation were defeated. Senator Robert M. LaFollette, Jr., Progressive, of Wisconsin, on the other hand, proposed an amendment, likewise defeated, to increase the amount to nine billion dollars.

It is calculated that the New Deal is costing $12,891 every minute of the night and day, seven days a week. In the last eight months the expenditure are as follows: PWA, 776 million dollars; FEHA, 665 million; CCC, 282 million; AAA, 484 million; RFC, 324 million; Veterans Administration, 370 million; Army and Navy, 365 million; interest on public debt, 47 million; and departments, 246 million. In other words, it is estimated that the Government is spending two dollars for every dollar it collects.

The "watchdog" of the Treasury is Comptroller General J. R. McCarl, who has held his office for 14 years. His office must approve all government expenditures, and on many occasions he has made it impossible for certain "pet projects" to be put into effect by claiming such expenditures were contrary to existing law. His authority has been considered supreme, but it is now being challenged and many an official of the Administration is anxious to deny the Comptroller General the power he has had since his appointment in 1921.

The House has been giving consideration to the two bills providing for the payment of the Adjusted Service Certificates of the United States Veterans: the Patman Bill and the Vinson Bill. The difference between the two bills is the matter of payment. The Patman Bill provides for payment through the issuance of "greenbacks" and the Vinson Bill leaves the question of finances up to the Treasury.

By a vote of 318 to 90 the House passed the Patman Bill on Friday afternoon. Inasmuch as the measure is "inflationary" it is anticipated that it will be defeated in the Senate. There is the possibility that the Senate will substitute the Vinson Bill for it.

Elephants Eat Trees Trees strike one as making queer dishes, but elephants don't think so. There is nothing an African elephant likes better than an appetizing mimosa tree, some 20 feet in height. Pushing it over with his tusks, Jumbo will eat its leaves and shoots, its roots, and even the bark on its branches.—Pearson's Weekly.

Japan's Cherry Trees Useful Cherry trees in Japan serve several purposes: Their flowers, pickled in salt and soaked in hot water, make a tea substitute; their bark is used for decorative purposes, including funeral vases, and their leaves, preserved in salt, are used in cake.

Postage Stamps The post office department says that no postage stamps are legal tender, but all postage stamps since 1861, if in an undamaged condition, are good for postage.

Size of Yellowstone Park Yellowstone national park is chiefly in the northwest part of Wyoming with narrow adjacent strips in Montana and Idaho. It covers a surface as the park proper about 32 miles in length, from north to south and about 54 miles in width, with an actual area of 3,350 square miles. To this region, as originally circumscribed, a forest preserve of some 2,000 square miles has been added on the east and south, giving a full area to the park of somewhat over 5,500 square miles.

Germinating Diamonds Until comparatively recent times, superstitious people throughout the world thought that precious gems were capable of reproducing their kind. Tales of germinating diamonds are still common in South Africa.

First to Play Juliet In the first Shakespearean production it was the custom to use boy actors for feminine roles. The part of Romeo was played by Burbage and an unidentified boy played Juliet in the earliest performances. Between the time of Burbage's death and the Restoration there are no records of Romeo and Juliet on the stage. From 1642 to 1690 parliament prohibited public stage plays. After the lifting of this prohibition, Sir William D'Avenant received from the king exclusive stage rights for the play. His original Juliet was Mary Saunders, afterward Mrs. Thomas Betterton, who is apparently the first woman ever to have played the part of Juliet.

River Changes Course The river Hoang Ho of China, almost 3,000 miles long, is believed to have changed its course nine times in the past 2,500 years. In 1897, when it changed its course, a million Chinese were drowned in the process.
